Our Yacht Club sponsors a sailing camp for youth in July of each year. This year the start date is July 11th. Our next generation of sailors and possible future Club members graduate from our Sail Camp. The camp uses boats owned and supplied by PRYC. Volunteers from the Club membership are vital to the events success. If you can help prepare our next generation of sailors contact Archer Farmer, who is the Boards representative to the Sail Camp.

Memorial day weekend saw a half dozen boats from our Yacht Club make their way to Manteo for a weekend of excess eating followed by the morning's sober reflection on the holidays meaning. Those who left for Manteo on Friday endured rough seas but Saturday sailors found a break in the wind and no square waves. Some who did not brave the tropical storm by sea drove to Manteo to share in the good times. On Sunday the fishing expedition set out for the Gulf Stream in spite of tropical storm Bonnie and reported that the normally feared Oregon Inlet was smooth. They almost made it to the Stream too. As we know a Tropical Storm is a baby hurricane and does not like boats in it's ocean. So after some time spent air-born and a rough landing the fishers turned away from the black clouds and retreated to calmer water. The restaurant tuna was good.

Two of our fleet set their course for Ocracoke 45 miles into the teeth of the gale. They saw black clouds, rain and wind but anchored under the sign of a rainbow. Those two boats continued to Oriental on Monday while the remaining fleet returned to the mighty Pasquotank.
