August 27th saw Yacht Club boats underway to Coinjock Marina and the Lobster Fest. Warm and windless weather on Saturday allowed the sailboats to charge their batteries for most of the trip. Nearing the sound the fleet was attacked by fuzzy bills; a most unpleasant flying insect. Entering the North River, the attack subsided and a northeast breeze made for a pleasant trip up the scenic North river. The Lobster Fest was well attended and the PRYC table was full. Music was provided by the Bakers with an additional live performance by Stevie Nicks. A birthday party on-board the Cast Away topped the evening. A stiff northeast breeze made for a brisk sail up the Pasquotank on Sunday.

Hurricane season is here. Insure that your boat is prepared for a blow. If a storm is approaching lines should be inspected and replaced as required. Sails should be removed. For a minor storm the mainsail could be spiral wrapped with an line. Roller furling jibs are prone to unrolling in a storm often resulting in significant damage to the affected and neighboring boats.
